Dear IDSDC Friends,

As mentioned in our May 12 email, we are focusing our efforts on a relaunch of our fundraising this fall. Much will depend on our ability to safely hold meetings with potential major donors.

In the meantime, we are maintaining the existing relationships we have built and are encouraged by the wide-ranging enthusiasm for our project throughout Arizona and beyond. For example, organizations such as the Arizona Office of Tourism and the Greater Phoenix Economic Council have offered to distribute our professional video via their social media when we relaunch the fundraising.

Since it's fun to focus on positives, below is a thank you from one of the students who competed in the Fountain Hills Dark Sky Festival art contest.

JUST A NOTE

Thank you so so so much for the award of first place in the art contest! This year was my first year ever not being able to take an art class but I was' lucky to have been invited to participate by our FHS Art teacher. Thank you again year creating an art peice for this contest and this years idea came from my amazement of our night sky. How wide and unknown it is. You get lost just marveling up at night. Thank you so much towards anyone who helped the

We appreciate the participation of our local schools in dark sky-related activities and will continue to maintain the excellent relationships.

Again, thank you for your interest in this project. If you haven't already and wish to join the Launch Crew for the International Dark Sky Discovery Center, you can mail the card below, which can be printed if you CLICK HERE, or you can make a donation with your credit card via PayPal on our website here: <https://darkskycenter.org/contact/> The IDSDC is a 501(c)3 organization and contributions are tax deductible.

Stay safe and we hope you have a good summer.
