Dear Friends of the IDSDC,

We have promised email updates about the International Dark Sky Discovery Center (IDSDC) approximately every six weeks. We have and will continue to do that.

However, as a nonprofit, we would be remiss if we didn't at least once per year specifically suggest that you consider a donation to help bring the IDSDC to life. What better day to do that than Giving Tuesday.

Your options are either a donation or a pledge. Pledges are contingent upon us reaching the funding level needed to put a shovel in the ground.

The Launch Crew card is below for donations of $100 to $5,000. Options for donations or pledges of $10,000 or more are on our donation page. Names of all Launch Crew members and all other donors will be prominently displayed in the IDSDC. One additional option to consider is to make a donation as a gift for someone else and have their name displayed in the facility.

Thank you for your continued interest in this amazing project.

Wishing you the best during this holiday season.
